MEDITATION

Psalms 78:1-8 (K)

Psalms 78:¹ Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

² I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

³ Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

⁴ We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

⁵ For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

⁶ That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

⁷ That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

⁸ And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

KEYNOTE TOUCH POINTS

Heaven's wisdom and knowledge is not designed to be kept hidden or confined to a select generation; but, God wants His Word revealed to every generation of humanity, so that they might "know Him," as well as what is required of us.

STIRRING WORDS

parable

a biblical parable is a short, realistic story or extended comparison from everyday life that illustrates a deep spiritual or moral truth about the kingdom of God.
